THE EVENING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Boniface MENYE

A story worth knowing about Pastor Menyé's faith in the ministry of healing.

One day, in 2007, Brother Zach came here. He preached. It was powerful. A journalist who was there said he had never seen anything like that. People were rolling on the floor under the weight of contrition for their sins. When he finished preaching, he gave me the microphone, telling me to pray for the souls. I prayed and spoke in tongues. I asked God to forgive sins in word, deed and thought. I asked God to write their names in the book of life. In fact, it was the classic way of leading someone to accept the Lord. And then I said amen! And when I finished, I asked the souls to go back to their seats. As soon as I asked the souls to go back to their seats, Brother Zach said "no". He ran over and took the microphone back. He laughed and laughed and he said, "You are my disciple, that is how I too used to do it. Now, I have evolved. They will receive healing now just as they received salvation." He said that is what we will do from now on. He called it "the Gospel of full salvation". What does that mean?

If you organize an evangelism campaign, go full length. Immediately pray for healing. Don't say that when the person repents, we will fast and pray for his healing. Just as sin has been forgiven on the spot, you must proclaim their healing on the spot too. From that day onward, I became a different person. It is as if he deposited something in my intelligence.

When he left, I started. I preach and pray for the sick. The very first time was in Bingerville. I preached and launched the call. I prayed for the sick. Now I had to do like Brother Zach, asking: "Who has a testimony?" That was where I was a bit afraid. Preaching and launching the altar call, we had already done that, but preaching, launching the altar call, praying for the sick and asking who has a testimony? Something told me: "What if there is no one?" Brother Zach used to say: "God's responsibility is to heal, and man's is to testify". Someone raised his hand and testified that he had a pain in his vertebral column, but after prayer, not only did his vertebral column straighten up, but the pain disappeared. And I was encouraged. But the brethren didn't know I came from afar. That's faith, and for those of you who knew Brother Zach, there aren't many of you, because many of you believed after he went to be with the Father. At the last moment, he preached and prayed for the sick. He called it "the weekend of salvation and healing".

Why am I saying that?

It is like an inheritance for the children, you must not just preserve it, rather you must make it known. You must say what is going on. Anyone who does this will see the glory of God, because the apostle says in Philippians 4.9, Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

If you saw Brother Zach, especially those who knew him, if you have heard, if you have received, if you have learned something, practise it and you will have the fruits. There is no witchcraft behind what is happening in Côte d'Ivoire. I have tried, it is faith in Jesus. The Spirit is alive, the Spirit acts. Maintain your composure, keep your personality, don't invent anything and you will see!

Someone said that CMFI wins souls and they retrieve those souls. This testimony touched the international leader deeply. He himself shared that testimony with me. At that time, he told me: “Make sure that wherever you go, you leave a pastor behind”. I think I have said that to several people. What does that mean?

There must be people in nations who can give their lives for the sheep, who can listen to them, who can adopt them, even before talking about healing. Healing comes when God gives you the tools for the people you love. When he sees your tears on behalf of the children you love. Many servants want the gifts to manifest authority. This is not good. A healing is a blessing to a miserable sheep. It is not a source of glory. And after each healing, there must be prayers for those who are not yet healed. It is a hospital. You will never find in a country that everyone is cured because some people come in, others are brought in. Some leave the hospital, others are on their way in. Young converts who believed yesterday, should have their ties broken. Their demons must be cast out. What will you rejoice about? Those who already believed a while ago, demons come to tempt them from time to time. They still need to be cast out. So, it is a life of spiritual warfare; otherwise, what could bring Jesus to say: “And surely I am with you always”?

I often advise the deliverance team to stay calm and resist temptation. There is temptation in it. Even in the Bible, the apostles resisted. They tore their clothes to tell people «Don't do that”. When they got to a place, people wanted to worship them. But that is not why you should run away. When a demon resists, don't take it as a personal challenge. If a demon resists, it is only normal because he doesn't know where to go. That is why it resists. But you must break it through perseverance, through the ability to build teams to subdue the enemy. In the beginning, brethren, I used to break all evil ties with sister Colette. Afterwards, there was an assembly, we would take one person and the whole assembly would break his evil ties. Then there were several assemblies. Then we had days to break ties with some groups. After that, things evolved again. When someone arrived, I would appoint someone to lead the breaking of ties and I would be there to supervise. Later on, things evolved even further and I would assign someone and say: “deliver the person”. When you are done, then call me to come and proclaim the blessing”.

Blessing is a great ministry. It is just as important as casting out the demon, because once you have uprooted and cut down, you must plant. After that, I had to look for leaders to form a team. I was looking for two people who would form a team of fifty people each. So, I have two teams, one to break evil ties online, and the other team travels with me. So, I have two teams, otherwise every elder has his own team. There is a message here. If the pastoral college resumes, we will share this message. The title is: “Church planting and the development of ministries for growth in numbers and quality”. How can we help the Church to grow and what ministries do we need to develop as the Church grows? One of the aspects is what we are doing in the ministry of deliverance. What we do today has nothing to do with what we did in the beginning, when there was only one assembly.

1 Kings 22:18-23, The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?” Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing around him on his right and on his left. And the LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’ “One suggested this, and another that. Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him’. “By what means?’ the LORD asked”. ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets', he said. 'You will succeed in enticing him', said the LORD. 'Go and do it'. "So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you".

1 Samuel 16:14, Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

Isaiah 59:18-19, According to what they have done, so will he repay wrath to his enemies and retribution to his foes; he will repay the islands their due. From the west, men will fear the name of the LORD, and from the rising of the sun, they will revere his glory. For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the LORD drives along.

These three scriptures give us a lesson that will enable us to pray this evening. It is the Holy Spirit who protects the believer in these battles. He protects him and capacitates him. He equips him, enables him and fills him with power. When the Holy Spirit is there, even with twigs and jars, you can fight and defeat the enemy. Samson defeated a thousand men with a jawbone of a donkey. There were the children of Israel, only one would take a spear and strike eight hundred people with a sword. They tried to bind Samson, but as soon as the Spirit came down on him, the bonds were broken. The Bible says: "For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the Lord drives along".

Who backs you up in your battles? What spirit are you relying on to defeat the enemy? If it is the Holy Spirit, there are things you ought to obey so that He doesn't depart from you. God had anointed and clothed Saul with the power of the Holy Spirit, giving him a new heart. God gave him a mission: he had to totally destroy the Amalekites. He disobeyed and the Holy Spirit left him. The word of God says: "Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him."

That is why we overthrow idols, so that your heart can be free of demonic influence and filled with God's love. One day, Brother Zach came to Côte d'Ivoire, and at a meeting he asked the following question: "What is holiness?" Many believers replied, "Deliverance from sin!" He said: "Holiness is a heart filled with the Holy Spirit!"

The story we read in the book of Kings, God gathered his army. He wanted Ahab to die in the war because he had sinned. God was looking for an angel in his army who could convince Ahab to engage into battle. And a demon of lies swiftly came, telling God, "I can do what you are asking". I will be a lying spirit in the mouths of his prophets" and God told him, "You will succeed!" A lying spirit came because false prophets are liars. And the word of God says: "a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him". When you lie, the spirit that can fight and overcome you is the lying spirit. Liars are slaves to the lying spirit. The lying demon knowing that it would succeed, said to himself: "because these prophets are liars, I will just be in their mouths". We should be encouraged by what God says: The Lord said, "You will deceive him, and you will overcome him; go out and do so".

If you have a problem with anger, the army of the devil will look for the spirit of anger to attack you. The demons that have been overcome will seek the demon that is not yet overcome, and all the others will get behind him, relying on his victory. When it is like that, God lets that demon come and attack you, because God does not like idolaters. The whole Bible speaks about a single commandment: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your strength. No idols, no other gods. And the second is to love your brother. If you have understood that, you can leave your Bible and become a Bible yourself. It is because man is stubborn that God has spoken much, in many ways, many times because of the hardening of the human heart.

When you are attached to idols, God abandons you into the hands of wicked spirits and you cannot win the victory. Just a few days to the end of the crusade, we need to ask ourselves: “How can we protect the fruit of the crusade?” A demon may tell you: “Slap your wife”. If you do, you lose all your blessings. Or he may say: “Let him go near koutoukou, and everything will be nullified”, or “This one, just insult him and he will forget everything about the crusade because his self, is too hot!” When we deliver people, we recommend that they be mindful of any form of provocation. You can take a taxi, pay for your transport fare and then the taxi driver tells you that you have not paid anything. If you want to make a claim because that is your right, be calm and gentle, because there is a demon waiting for you to say: “Look at his head of thief!” As soon as you say that you lose all your blessings. One day, Brother Zach came here. At the beginning of the work, with very limited resources, a brother was generous enough to drive Brother Zach. We got somewhere, where a vehicle blocked his way and he said: “idiot!”

When self is not yet dead, you can still say “idiot”. Tonight, you will deal with self. You will talk to yourself, saying: (mention your name) “Who are you?” You are proud! You will see what that will produce. David said to his soul: “Why are you downcast, O my soul? Put your hope in God!” And then you become normal, you begin to see clearly.

Say:

- I proclaim that I am nothing! It is the remedy for self. Say to yourself: “They talk to you, you get angry. Who are you? It is because of brotherly love that people respect you, otherwise you are nothing! (Self is not a demon. It is you. As soon as someone touches you, you want to fight.) You are nothing. What are you? Calm down, be grateful. Honour everybody. Serve others. Do as Jesus did”. (Speak to yourself.)

Brother Zach said: “I am nothing! I am nothing! I’m nothing!”

Say:

- I thank God because I’m not even insulted every second, I am nothing! I am nothing! I am nothing!
- It is a truth I should understand without exhortation, I am nothing!
- Thank you, Lord Jesus!

Acts 20:24, However, I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the gospel of God’s grace.

You have spoilt a lot of things; you must restore them. You have lost many friends because your self demands so many things. Paul says: “I consider my life worth nothing to me”.

When I just gave my life to Jesus, I demanded a lot of things. I was not good myself, but I wanted decent people, who ate food without making noise in my ears, who walked with class.

One day, we were praying and the termites came after the lights, and the Holy Spirit told me: “Look at what the termites are doing. They turn around the light, and then fall. When the wings drop off, another one comes to cling on it and both start walking together”. I noticed that the termites that had not stripped themselves remained alone with long wings. I heard a voice telling me: “Do like the termites! Your requirements are like the wings of these termites. If you keep them, you will always be alone”.

Brethren, I believed in 1981. I received this message in 1982. That message made me take the decision one day, that if someone offends me personally, I will not rebuke him or her. I make necessary arrangements to put into practice what the Lord had instructed me, which is: “I am nothing!” Many brethren know me and think that my gentleness is purely natural. I could decide that you do not exist. Who are you to consider that the other doesn't exist? Try to take the decision that if someone offends you personally, you will not say anything. A normal man always claims gratefulness, attention, gain, advantage. Try to decide that you're nothing. If I rebuke someone and he does not obey, God himself will speak to him. That is what happens when you do not rebuke for yourself. God uses all that comes out of your mouth to speak to the other person.

Say:

- I am nothing! (Behold the glory of God!)

Stand up:

There is a victory that you will record this evening! If a power was hidden behind self, it has fallen, and the Holy Spirit takes its place in your life and in my life, and the nature of the battle changes. The word of God says: “the enemy will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the Lord drives along!” There are certain dreams that will come to an end. Spirits that wanted you to sleep for them to come, they will meet the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of the Lord.

Self is an enemy to the glory of God. If you seek the glory of men for self-sake, you will never see the glory of God. A man who seeks the glory of men is not a believer. God is the sovereign. He is the one you must fear. You must not fear men, but rather honour them.

You can honour me, but don't fear me. If I accept to be feared, I have buried my ministry. A leader who makes people tremble is cursed. Do not tremble before men; man is nothing! Fear God, honour the king. If President Alassane Ouattara comes in our midst, I am going to ask you to stand up, because the Bible recommends us to honour the king. Honour your village chief, the head of your family, honour your father and your mother, but fear God. The fear of God sanctifies man!

Say:

- Lord, I am nothing! Take my heart! Reign! (Bless the people who get you on your nerves. Bless your wife. Bless the people you don't love. You are nothing.)

Someone can cast out all demons, confess all sins, if he has not overthrown his self, if he has not denied himself. he has not yet begun his own deliverance. Self can bring you back to commit all the sins you dropped. But if you deny self (self is that personal pride, where you tell yourself, “It’s a favour if someone greets me, because I’m nothing”), the Holy Spirit will take control. This is where you hear, “When the enemy comes in, the Spirit of the Lord will cause him to flee”. When self is there, the Holy Spirit doesn’t work because God resists the proud. If you are a young man, let’s assume that you are in a zone and the elder is maltreating you and crushing you. You have to let it go. The Bible says: “Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older; God himself will lift you up at the right time”. Don’t cheat your way to the top. Let God lift you up without you doing slander or hypocrisy. If you’re a leader, take a quick look at the people you must meet and who you will lift up. Decide: “I will do good to such and such disciple”. “I will thank this other one,” and the Lord will be there.

Say:

- I am nothing! Lord, I accept, I deny myself, I am nothing! Your word says that you insulted no one, you made no threats, you were like a mute sheep before those who sheared it. I want to be like you.

Our God is not an idol, he has answered us!

Raise your hand and say:

- Satan, I’m taking back all the positions you stole when I was proud! I recover all the positions lost in times of weakness! I have been reconciled with my father, I have accepted the nature of Christ, his example and model, and you, spirit of the dead, begone!
- Lord, here I am. Fill me up! (Pray with faith and be filled with the Holy Spirit. (It is the evening of the Holy Spirit.)
- Ask him for the gifts you require. Say, “I want such gift,” and believe you have received it. Don’t ask like an unbeliever. You can ask for the gift of prophecy. You can ask him for clear visions.
- Father, give me visions! Give me prophetic dreams! (You can ask for the gift of speaking in tongues. You can ask for the gift of mercy, the gift of discernment. You can say: “Make me a gifted pastor”. You can ask for the gift of teaching. You can ask for the gift of evangelism. You can ask for the gift of healing. You can ask for the gift of casting out demons. You can ask him for the gift of working miracles. Ask and believe!)

If you have not dreamt for a long time, for years now, when people say they had dreams, you don’t know what they mean.

Say:

- Holy Spirit, tear this veil thrown over me! I want clear dreams! I want to open my eyes! Take away everything the wicked have laid over me!

Say:

- Holy Spirit, remove the scales and tear the veil! Let my head be uncovered! Let my eyes be washed! (Pray in tongues.)

- In the name of Jesus, I reject demonic dreams and visions! Holy Spirit, give gifts! You are the giver of God's gifts!
- In the name of Jesus, we take back every lost position! We strike the enemy! You, unclean spirit, who leaned on self, on pride and resisted, we break your resistance! Begone!
- We strike every spirit that has relied on times of weakness to resist! You are exposed! The children have been reconciled with their father, begone! If you have risen, we overthrow you! If you ascended from the abyss, we send you back into the abyss! If you ascended from the waters, we strike you and dry up the waters! You stay on the sand; you don't go in the waters anymore!

When someone tells you: "I fell and found myself in the forest in the village", while we are laughing here at Attiekoi, someone falls and find himself in the village, it means that the bewitchment place is in the village or in the forest. So, when you fall, your spirit goes to the place where you were bound, and that is where you were chained. Fetishists are Satan's pastors, Satan's evangelists. They know that if you make this sacrifice or that sacrifice, it will take your spirit into the forest. We will that break that bond.

The problem is that some people have prepared their breaking of evil ties without seeking to know the gods their parents have worshipped. On the other hand, if you have three fathers, you must break the ties with all three people. For example, there is the biological father and the adoptive father, and there are even fathers who were guardians. Normally, all those ties must be broken. It often happens that the brethren forget where to look for key information and there's no one to help them. In this case, we choose the anointing of spiritual authority.

We will command that anyone who is unable to identify his ties, that God intervene now and that all ties be broken. You will realise that you will have dreams where some spirits that we will judge will come because they have been provoked or struck. It is the fullness of the Holy Spirit this evening that will strengthen you in the battle. Even in a dream, you will find yourself saying for the first time "In the name of Jesus, I cast you out!")

- In the name of Jesus, we break the bewitchment! We judge all spirits that stand on an unknown or unidentifiable ties! Let the fire of God descend upon you! We strike you and break those ties! We declare you free! (Pray in tongues.)
- The fullness of the Holy Spirit will renew all kinds of gifts.
- In the name of Jesus, let all that has been built in my life remain built! I keep my heart in humility.
- Let no spirit follow any brother near or far! Let all that has been built never be destroyed! In the name of Jesus, let all that has been destroyed never be rebuilt!

At home, pray for the healing of every so-called incurable disease. Tomorrow, the war will be waged against all diseases that have been baptized "incurable disease".
