GOSPEL MESSAGE

GOD DOES NOT HOLD GRUDGES;
REPENT AND HE WILL RECEIVE
YOU FAVORABLY

INTERCESSION

RESTORE YOUR FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD LET GO OF YOUR WORRIES

Psalms 18:1–9, "For the director of music. Of David the servant of the Lord. He sang to the Lord the words of this song when the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said: "I love you, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I called to the Lord, who is worthy of praise, and I have been saved from my enemies. The cords of death entangled me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me. The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me. In my distress I called to the Lord; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears. The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry. Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it. He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet."

This passage we just read describes a great vision that David had. God showed him his deliverance. No wonder some brethren said that Jesus came down, it can help you.

This text shows us how God came down from heaven to get David out of danger. God can reveal your own deliverance to you. He can show you angels coming down to break your chains. If you have not experienced that yet, you can ask for it. Do not doubt, God will reveal it to you. Just one experience, and you will be delivered from all your doubts.

This song is a song of gratitude, testimony, and thanksgiving. David had many enemies. There were people who swore to kill him, real enemies who came with physical weapons, spears, and swords to kill him. After God delivered him from all his enemies, he composed this song, this psalm. It is a testimony. And we know that all testimonies are meant to bring us into God's grace.

The apostle John said: "We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us."

We give testimony so that you may hear and believe, and so that the same blessings received by the one testifying may also be fulfilled in your life. You will experience what David experienced. That is why he is testifying.

David begins by describing his spiritual state. He reveals who God is to him. That is where everything starts. He is a man who loves God, and what follows is rooted in that truth: God is his strength.

Some people serve many gods. They carry little barks, cowries that they have to wear, or oils they believe bring luck. They rely on friends, and when they are in trouble, they say: "I'll call my friend." But David had none of that. The Lord was his strength. His strength did not come from fetish nor from his relations. His strength was his God. If you want to imitate him, walk like him, and experience the same blessings he did you must make God your strength. You must take your eyes off everything around you, especially people around you. No one can help you; only God can help you. The Lord is your true strength.

David stands on the rock; he is firm. He is not like someone standing on sand. He is like a person standing on a solid rock. The Lord is his foundation. He walks with confidence, without stumbling, because the Lord is his rock. The Lord is his fortress. When the enemy comes, he runs and hides in his God. The fortress is a stronghold a secure place where you can hide. The enemy cannot enter there. David hides in God, who is everything to him. He knows his enemies are strong, so he hides in his fortress, who is the Lord. He knows that in this battle where he must be freed from chains only the Lord can break them. Even if he finds himself in a prison, his God can come down and shatter it. The Lord is his Deliverer, and his eyes are fixed on Jesus. He does not wait for help from men; he does not rely on his own wisdom. He does not put his trust in weapons of war. David has been a warrior since his youth, but he does not rely on that. God is his Master, the One worthy of his worship and adoration. He does not worship rivers, streams, or mountains. His God is the Lord.

If you want to follow his example, you must destroy all the false gods in your life.

Jeremiah 2:27, "They say to wood, 'You are my father,' and to stone, 'You gave me birth.' They have turned their backs to me and not their faces; yet when they are in trouble, they say, 'Come and save us!'"

You make wood your father, and say to stone: "You gave me life." And you turn your back on God. But when you are hopeless and about to die, you cry out: "Lord, save me," with a stomach full of alcohol. When you were told that alcohol was harmful, you answered: "It is my body and my stomach that take it."

But God says: "When you said to a tree, 'You are my father,' I heard it. When you said to a stone, 'You are my mother,' I heard it." God has locked away all the devil's angels in darkness. They are bound with chains. When you call on them, they cannot come. That is why we say that spirit husbands and spirit wives are agents of darkness. What they do is witchcraft.

In mythology, the word night, refers to witchcraft. When the Bible says that the Light came but people fled from it, it is not about the sunlight. It is speaking about Jesus. They fled from Jesus because they are sorcerers who love darkness. But David worships the true God.

True conversion must be accompanied by the complete destruction of idols. You must burn the idols. God alone must be worshiped. No other gods must stand before Him. There are people who are bound by chains. A brother once testified that he had a bracelet. And the moment it was removed, it turned into a snake. You receive a bracelet thinking it is a simple decoration meanwhile, you have wrapped a python around your wrist. You see a necklace on your neck, but in the spiritual realm, sorcerers see a giant python around your neck. And you say: “David cried out, I too, will cry out!”

It must become real in each of us and then God will come down. God does not hold grudges. When you repent, He does not hold your past against you. He forgets the times of ignorance. He says: “Here is a little sorcerer who is now standing in Attiékoï. I must go and help him.” Even if you have practiced witchcraft for years, because you are standing here today praying with the others, God will deliver you. He does not hold your past ignorance against you He receives your repentance. When you say to Him, “Lord, I regret it,” He will receive you favorably. When arrows are shot at you, He will block them, and they will not reach you. When the enemy attacks and you lift up your eyes and cry: “Oh Father, oh Father!” he flees.

Say:

- I declare that I will look at the place where the enemy once stood and I will see him no more.

This is a prophecy, and it shall come to pass. It is a prophecy of victory.

Say:

- This prophesies my victory! This prophesies our victory! We will look for our enemies in the places where they once stood—and we will see them no more! I declare: I will not see you again! My enemy, your fate is sealed! The Lord has prophesied against you! You will not stand! You cannot stand!

Then, David described the situation he was going through, how overwhelming and terrifying were the weapons of his enemies, their tools of war, the torrents of destruction, and the fury of all his enemies the sorcerers. For him, it was over; his grave had already been dug. He had already been caught in the nets of the wicked. His enemies were certain that this time around, he would not escape.

When you read the story of David, you will see that there were times when everyone thought it was over for him. One day, he was even forced to act insane in order to survive. That day, his enemies let him go because they truly believed he had lost his mind.

That phase of David’s life when he was in distress is not fiction. It’s not poetry. It is a real history. He told it with transparency and no hypocrisy. He did not hide the fact that he was in distress.

Do not be ashamed when you are in distress. Do not hide it. Some brethren hide their small worries because they think pagans will mock them. That is self. We do not fight with pride but with humility and renunciation. You become small even before your servants, your disciples.

Yet David did not sink into despair or doubt. All the evidence around him pointed toward defeat enough to destroy every last drop of faith and assurance. But he refused to give in. He knew what God had said: "Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me." David did not forget this word and he testifies to it in this very psalm. And so, God on His throne heard the voice of His son.

Tonight, when we begin to pray, prepare yourself. Align your heart, your emotions, and your thoughts. God does not hold grudges. Even if you came today as a pervert, if you decide right now to change, your cry will rise and reach the ears of the Most High.

Even if you are being tempted as you sit where you are, say: "I refuse to fall into sin!"

David's cry stirred God to anger. The cry of a child of God under oppression stirs God to holy anger. When you cry out to God and ask Him to save you, for you it may seem simple but in reality, you are calling God into battle. And He loves that. He does not delight when you try to handle things on your own through anger and grudges. Not only do you exhaust yourself, but you also shut the doors God had opened because you are sinning. But when you are His friend, and you have forsaken human weapons and human help and you declare that God is your everything, even as the enemy keeps pursuing you then when you cry out, the wrath of God is stirred.

In David's case, the foundations of the mountains shook. David was a prophet. He saw smoke rising from the Lord's nostrils a symbol of God's fury against the one who had placed David in that situation. The fire coming out of God's mouth was, in truth, the judgment that fell on them. God is mighty!

Take time to reflect so that David's vision may be revealed to you. Do not joke with God. When God is angry it should not be with you, even in a dream. When in testimonies, brethren say they saw fire coming down from heaven and consuming everything that is a spiritual reality. These are spiritual victories that manifest among us in many forms. When David received those visions, he believed and now he testified about them, because what he saw came to pass.

A child of God does not argue he must do what he knows, which is to learn to cry out to God. If someone tells you God does not exist, tell him: "We will meet again at the sound of the trumpet." That will be a day of revelation, weeping, and regret. Many will regret not to have just believed. That is why if you are a prostitute and Jesus is calling you just accept to follow Him, without worrying about what you will eat or where you will sleep. You will then see how God can bless you. And if you are a young man who masturbates seven times a day, and Jesus calls you do not say you are not worthy to serve Him. Just believe, and masturbation will flee from you.

Sin will flee from you, and you will walk free.

David saw the glory of God. He saw God descending upon a cherubim. These are powerful angels who guard the glory of God. They are angels who do not tolerate any evil thought against God.

When God does not want to answer a wicked person, He blocks access to their prayers with darkness, so that even when they ask for forgiveness, their prayer does not reach Him. On the day God descended upon the cherubim, He had shut off access to the prayers of the wicked. It was a day of vengeance. David's vision was real.

Say:

- I declare that I am privileged! For my sake, God reveals His anger! He has multiplied the blows beyond number!

The battle was intense. David was already in prison in the depths of the waters. But God, after striking his enemies, stretched out His hand from on high, deep into the waters, and rescued His child David from there.

For David, God reached into the water. But for you, He will simply command that you come out and you will come out, without even making a slight effort. Even if you were buried under mountains, the mountains will be destroyed and you will be free.

The day I let worry take over, the day I trembled before my adversaries, the enemy seized the opportunity. He knew it is written: "The righteous will live by faith," so he waited for the day when I was losing my faith, and that's when he shoot a tiny arrow and it struck me.

Say:

- The Lord will not abandon me! He will deliver me from my enemy who is stronger than I am! He attacked me on the day of my distress but I declare that today is the day of my victory! I am coming out of this distress! I lay down every useless burden that has weighed me down and empowered my enemies! I renounce doubt! I renounce every unnecessary quarrel between my husband or my wife and me! I renounce every conflict between my disciple-maker or between my disciple and me! I abandon everything that has weighed me down for the sake of tonight's victory!
- The Lord is my support! He has brought me out into a spacious place! He has saved me! The Lord loves me! I confess: The Lord loves me!

Do not listen to the testimony of the devil, who tries to make you doubt God's love for you. He is lying to you. Be fully convinced: the Lord loves you.

You come without sin, you come to embrace Jesus. He says: "I was upright, and that was right." God considered that righteousness. Let no one deceive you by saying God does not care about righteousness! Do not listen to false teachers who claim that God overlooks sin. David said: "I know the sins I used to commit, and I am now cautious. "That is what you must do too. Do not let false teachers deceive you. You need to learn from your past failure. When you walk in righteousness, you cannot lose. God is good to those who are good. To the upright, God shows Himself upright. To the pure, God shows Himself pure. If you are wicked if you misbehave, God will treat you accordingly. Some people come seeking prayer, but they will go back filled with anger. You came to pray, you will pray but you must abandon sin. You came to call on the Lord. You must walk in righteousness, and God will bless you. Every evil plan you have been entertaining you can abandon it right now. If you brought a girlfriend along saying, "Let us go and see what is happening at the crusade in Attiékoï," Let it ends here. She is no longer your wife! Do not run away from the truth, it is the very thing that will bring you blessing. It is good that the truth be told to you. Before you encounter the truth face-to-face, you must abandon adultery, now that you know you are calling on Jesus. You must say this to Jesus.

RESTORE YOUR FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD, FORSAKE WORRIES

Stand up

Restore your fellowship with God. Rely on Him. Let go of your worries. Let go of your anxieties. These are the very situations that open the door to the enemy. Once God has already blessed you, leave worry behind. Worries weigh you down. Worry is a burden and the devil can take advantage of it. Restore your fellowship with God. Restore peace and calm.

Say:

I am not afraid of anything, the Lord is my shepherd! The Lord is my shepherd! The Lord is my fortress! The Lord is my rock, my shield!

Proclaim who He is to you.

Raise your hands. He is not deaf, he hears. David cried out you must cry out too.

Say to God:

- I am fully aware that the battle is intense! I know the situation is serious. I know that without your power, I cannot make it through!
- I am aware, Oh Father, that if You come down, I will be saved! I will be rescued! I know my enemies are strong. They can destroy me. They have the resources driven by wicked hearts. They have weapons I do not have access to.

But You can help me! You are the One who helped David!

- Oh Father You are the One who can help me! You are the One who can deliver me! You are the One who can judge my enemies! You are the One! You are the One who can judge this wickedness!
- Oh Father, come to my rescue! Come against poverty! Oh Father, come against witchcraft! Come against occultism! Oh Father, come against men's wickedness! Come against false testimonies! Come against slander! Come against defamation! You can help me! Oh Father, come now! Step into this battle! (Keep praying.)
- Oh Father, answer our cry! (Keep praying in tongues.)
- Oh Father, act against poverty, sickness, death, spirits of death, and water spirits. In the name of Jesus, we proclaim our deliverance! In the name of Jesus let every knee bow! (Keep praying.)
- In the name of Jesus, we judge every sickness caused by the union of Freemasons who formed a coalition against me or against anyone present on this site or online! If someone is afflicted by a disease caused by sorcerers, occultism, witchcraft, or magic we break that disease and cast it out from everybody!
- Every disease that results from occultism, magic, and witchcraft we judge that disease! We strike it down! We cast it out from everybody! Every disease even severe disease! (Continue to destroy!)
- We cast out fever! We cast out insomnia! We cast out headaches! We cast out stomachaches! We cast out intestinal pain! We cast out every form of disease affecting the feet, the kidneys, the hips, and the spine!
- If someone dreamt that they were touched, and upon waking up, saw no one (lay your hand where you were touched.) I cast out every demon that followed me! I sanctify my body!
- If a chilly hand touched you in your sleep and no one was there when you woke up, in the name of Jesus, I cast out every spirit of death that followed you! Even if I did not realize I was touched if someone touched me I cast out every spirit of death that followed me from that moment! I cast out every spirit of death that came through that handshake!
- If someone puts something in his mouth eats it and then puts it in my mouth and I ate it knowingly or unknowingly and I did not have the courage to refuse, and they possessed me, bewitched me, you demon that entered that day, begone!
- You who were bewitched through what you ate and from that day evil spirits began following you we cast out those spirits, in the name of Jesus! And we declare you are free! Wicked spirit, go away! Depart! (Keep praying!)

Raise your right hand.

Say:

- If there is someone here or connected online who has been bewitched because of an inheritance, and a spirit has followed him to make his life miserable, we declare that this brother is free! We cast out every spirit that has followed him! (Let us pray in tongues.)

Stay focused! Even if his head is buried among the roots, the angels will pull it out and cut it free! You will go home free!

Say:

- I go home free! Free!

If someone has been bewitched by a third party, someone went and sat in your place

Say:

- I judge that act of bewitchment! I cancel that bewitchment! (Keep praying.)

Remain calm.

If someone has been bewitched through being swallowed, and they lost their identity and it is even difficult for them to understand anything.

Say:

- We banish that bewitchment and we command that the person be vomited up right now! Right now! (Keep praying.)
- If the person is in a pit we bring them out of the pit!
- If he is in the abyss we bring him out of the abyss!
- If the person is in the water we bring him out of the waters! (Let us pray in tongues.)
- If the person is in chains we break the chains!
- In the name of Jesus, if someone took a person's face to use it in witchcraft, and now he is accused: "You have been seen!" I remove that false face! I cast it into the fire! I wash my face in the blood of Jesus! (Keep praying.)

Keep silent.

Say:

- Holy Spirit, go to the depths of the seas and set the captives free! Let us pray in tongues! There are people who must come out of the waters!

Say:

- We break the resistance of water spirits!

Keep calm.

Say:

- We break the resistance of water spirits! We overthrow the resistance of water spirits! We scatter water spirits! We break your ties! We break your chains!
- We judge every spirit that is half-human, half-serpent! We judge you! We break your power! (Keep praying.)

If you feel that someone follows you when you are work.

Say:

- You, evil spirit following me, I cast you out of my life! I cast you out of my life!

---

I do not need you! Be gone!

- In the name of Jesus, if you were sent to protect me and sacrifices were offered on my behalf before or after my birth, I am already free! Jesus has already saved me! I know my Father! I know my God! You cannot protect me leave now!
- We insist: every spirit sent by someone into my family, under the pretense of protecting us, and that now follows me, your assignment in my life is over! Leave now!
- Leave now! You were supposedly sent to protect us but it was a lie! That lie gave you access, but now your work is over! Be gone!

Keep calm

- Let us pray in tongues!

Raise your right hand

The Holy Spirit is reminding me that we must pray for our families. Do not focus only on yourself.

Say:

- I release all the wealth of my family that was stolen and hidden in graves and in Hades
- In the name of Jesus, we release all the wealth of our families! Every treasure the dead have carried into the grave, we snatch it back! We release it for our families! All of it! All jobs! All projects! We judge every failure in these projects!

Let us pray for anyone who often dreams of being visited by a spirit when something good is about to happen. If you have an exam or breakthrough and suddenly feel attacked or wrestle with someone in a dream you will be delivered!

Say:

- You, spirit who appears just before something good happens and every time you appear, everything goes wrong we unite against you and strike you down! In the name of Jesus we break you! We chain you! We declare you will never return again!
- Brother, sister you are free! Jesus sets you free! Plan, take action, and you will succeed! (Keep proclaiming!)

🔥 The obstacles are broken! Your enemy is struck down and destroyed!

Say:

- Every work of Satan through men against our spiritual lives. we raise our hands against every human attack against our walk, our prayer life, our Bible study, our meditation, and all spiritual disciplines. We strike the armies raised by neighbors and coworkers to destroy our prayer and fasting lives! In the name of Jesus, we judge that army!

- We bless every saint with a victorious walk! We break the barriers! We loose the tongues of those who can no longer speak, those who cannot testify! We loose their tongues in the name of Jesus! We loose their tongues to proclaim the Gospel! We break the chains of those who can no longer walk to spread the Good News! We break the chains on their feet! We release their walk! (Let us pray in tongues.)

Say:

- In the name of Jesus, I wash away everything that was placed in my mouth to block my tongue! Even if it has been there for years even if it was before my birth I remove it all! I cleanse my tongue! I release my tongue!
- In the name of Jesus, I drink the blood of Jesus to cleanse my entire soul!
- Some people were made to drink things in a dream, and now when they speak, it is like a stinky smell that come out of you, which chase people away from you. The Lord delivers you tonight!
- From now on, when you speak, people will say: "Say it again!"
- Everything you drank that hinder your speech is now banished! From now on, people will say: "Speak again, brother! Speak again, sister!" We banish that bewitchment! We sanctify your speech! You are now pleasant to hear!
- You were made to drink it on purpose but the Lord is cleansing you! You will see the result!
- In the name of Jesus your words carried a foul odor you could not gather people together. But now you can! In every gathering, people will say: "Keep speaking" From now on, they will say: "Say something!" The Lord delivers you from the misery brought by that curse! He says: "I cleanse your tongue! I purify your soul!" You will carry the fragrance of life!
